

I definitely value being able to have an independent ISP, which is competitive in pricing and service, and would be strongly against any policy which allowed SBC or any other telecom provider to limit the access of Sonic or other ISP to their lines.